

Qshi Training – Scope of Practice & Non-Licensure Disclaimer

Provider: Nachala Healing

Instructor: Suzanne Bertolas

Training: Quantum Soul Healing Integration (Qshi)

---

Educational Purpose Only

The Qshi training is provided for educational and instructional purposes only. It is intended to support learning, understanding, and skill development related to hypnosis, altered states of awareness, and ethical facilitation.

This training is not therapy, counseling, medical treatment, psychological care, or healthcare of any kind.

No Licensure or Certification to Practice

Completion of the Qshi training does not grant:

- Medical licensure
- Psychological or counseling licensure
- Clinical credentials
- Authority to diagnose, treat, or cure any condition

Any certificate of completion confirms participation in an educational program only.

Participant Responsibility for Scope of Practice

Participants are solely responsible for understanding and adhering to the laws, regulations, and professional requirements within their own jurisdiction.

If a participant chooses to apply concepts from this training in a professional or personal setting, they do so at their own discretion and responsibility, and only within the scope of any licenses or qualifications they already hold.

No Professional Advice

Nothing taught, shared, or discussed within the Qshi training constitutes medical, psychological, legal, or professional advice. Participants agree not to represent Qshi training content as a substitute for licensed professional services.

Business Liability Clarification

All instruction and materials are provided through Nachala Healing as a business entity. Suzanne Bertolas, as an individual, is not personally liable for how participants interpret or apply the training content.

Acknowledgment

By enrolling in the Qshi training, I acknowledge that I have read and understood this Scope of Practice & Non-Licensure Disclaimer and agree to its terms.
